HAY Parade LED Table Lamp

The Parade by HAY was designed by husband and wife duo Viola Heyn-Johnsen and Jonas Trampedach, Danish designers who aimed to create an ambient light source with a sculptural quality. Consisting of a square base and arched top in coloured glass, the Parade LED table lamp changes its expression as the lamp is turned to different angles. The stunning sculptured hand-blown glass table lamp is called Parade due to the 'ability to command attention when several lamps are positioned together like a formation in a parade, where the square lines fit can fit together in a tessellated pattern'.

Equally appealing switched off as they are switched on, these elegant table lamps come in an array of colours and sizes for you to create your own personal arrangement. With a three-step dimmer, the Parade emits a gentle ambient glow as it provides a calming atmosphere. The beauty of the handmade glass is illuminated by the integrated LED light within and showcases every detail of this high-quality stylish material.
