Nordlux Temple To-Go 30 Portable Solar LED Lamp

Temple To-Go 30 is a portable solar LED lamp, designed by Danish design duo, Says Who. This design combines the classic lantern with modern elements. This lamp is a perfect solution for lighting your garden, terrace or balcony. You can place this solar charged portable lamp wherever you need it in your space and it will automatically illuminate when darkness falls, providing a cosy yet practical light.

Temple To-Go 30 is manufactured from durable materials, meaning it is well suited for harsh weather and perfect for all year round. These materials, along with the IP54 classification, mean makes it ideal for outdoor settings - even the beach.

The battery life of this lamp is 5 hours, while this is a solar lamp it can also be charged via a USB cable (included) - the charging time is 8 hours from 0%-100%.

Also available in a larger size.
