Beat Stout LED Pendant Light by Tom Dixon

The Beat Stout pendant is a gorgeous and chic light that has a curvaceous silhouette. The pendant lamp is made from spun brass, with the choice of 3 finishes, black/brass, brass and white/brass. The integrated LED light source emits an effective illumination that reflects off the brass interior and also directs downwards.

You can use the Beat Stout pendant light alone or in multiple for a functional and inviting glow, whether you need a light for your lounge or lights to hang over your kitchen counter. You can mix and match colours for variety or use just one for a more simplistic aesthetic.

Please note, that the LED ring is non-replaceable
