Arturo Alvarez Virginia Outdoor Pendant Light

The Virginia outdoor pendant was designed in honour of Virginia Woolf, a British writer who was a strong female protagonist who was one of the most prominent figures of avant-garde modernism. She used her career to highlight the difficulties for women and worked towards bringing feminism to the forefront. The lampshade is formed of a strong stainless steel material that is coated in white paint that adds an industrial touch to your exterior. The rough outer shade is contrasted by the delicate light that is diffused through its small openings and imperfections.

The pure white straight lines of this lampshade contradict the chaotic nature of the environment surrounding it. This highlights the elegance and form of the Virginia pendant by Arturo Alvarez. With an IP rating of 64, the Virginia pendant can be hung inside or outside. Indoor or out, this Arturo Alvarez pendant light will create a harmonious atmosphere that plays with light and shadows. Ideal for a garden, terrace or over a dining table, the Virginia is a simple yet complex design with a lot of potential.
