Anglepoise Original 1227 Desk Lamp National Trust Edition

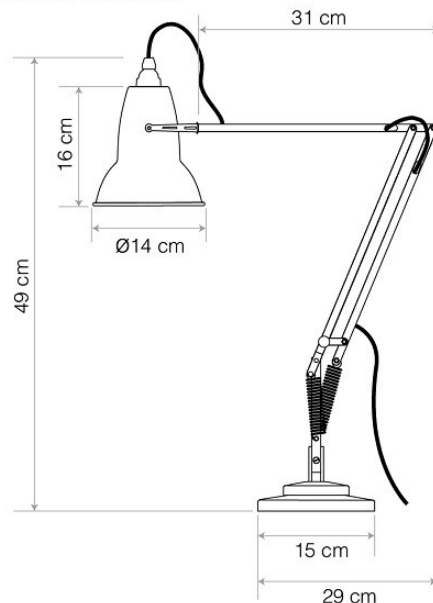

First launched in 1935, the Original 1227 desk lamp is a classic and iconic design that is the archetypal of Anglepoise. This well-loved and well-known design is the perfect addition to a desk, side table or shelf as it is highly adjustable using the classic Anglepoise spring mechanisms. Direct the shade to the ideal angle for reading, tasks, or to bring an indirect ambient light to a room. This iconic design has been in collaboration with the National Trust to create this limited edition National Trust Anglepoise Original 1227 desk lamp. The collaboration with the National Trust has resulted in a range of buttermilk, sage green and neptune blue lamps that all feature the National Trust emblem.

By purchasing this stunning limited edition Anglepoise lamp the charity will receive a donation towards the inspiring work that they do in the great outdoors. Established in 1895, the National Trust has grown into Europe's largest conservation charity. The longevity of this charity and their passion for nature is represented in the sturdy and timeless design of this Original 1227 desk lamp that will bring joy and light for years to come.
