Forked Shade Pendant Light by Buster + Punch

A part of the Buster + Punch Forked collection, the Forked Shade pendant embodies the best of British design, featuring a beautifully industrial look and a sleek metal shade. The pendant boasts a classic hemispherical silhouette which is contemporised with a two-pronged fork that holds the lampshade still and steady. The combination of the fork and the shade creates a stunning contrasting aesthetic, combining old and new design ideas.

The Forked Shade pendant lamp is available in a brass, burnt steel or steel colour finish, with each colour adding a unique perspective to your interior. You can also choose between a medium or large size so you can always mix and match between options to create a contrasting light display. Emitting a downward directed light, this pendant lamp is best used over tables and surfaces or as a main focal light.
