Mater Ray Table Lamp

The Ray table lamp by Mater is a simplistic Scandinavian design that combines both steel and oak to create a minimalist and functional table lamp. The functionality of this lamp comes from the ingenuity of the design. The oak globe-shaped shade uses a magnet to hold it inside the steel dome-shaped shade. This allows the user to move and adjust the shade to direct the beam of light wherever it is needed.

Available in a black or white finish, the steel structure paired with the soft oak shade creates a soft appearance ideal for a desk space or bedside table.
