PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Tiny Table Lamp by Ferm Living

Inspired by industrial Art Deco, the Tiny table lamp is the taller, larger version of the Tiny lamp. Made from iron, the table light features rounded and straight lines, having an eye-catching and stark silhouette. The bulb sits held underneath the lampshade, peering out in a characterful and playful way.

Available in brass or steel, the Ferm Living Tiny table light is universal and can be used in any interior or design scheme. The shade is also movable, being able to tilt so you can create a particular ambience and look in your space. The timeless and refined feel of the table lamp means it will forever be a classic in home, work or commercial settings.
