Nordlux Dial Table Lamp

The Nordlux Dial Table Lamp by Scandinavian designers Says Who, embodies fifties and sixties retro-chic with its streamlined design, bold colours, geometric shape and soft, curved rod. Through the wide shade, large amounts of light could highlight ornamental pieces within your home or provide an excellent focus light upon an office desk when completing tasks. The upper section of the shade is open allowing light to shine through creating a decorative, upright effect, whilst the shade is adjustable to direct light in any way you like.

Designer, Says Who, bring a different approach to design and like to experiment with varying shapes and styles. The Dial Table Lamp is available in a variety of bold colours bringing a pop of vividness with novelty and fun to your home interior.
