Design For The People Navone Pendant

Designed by Sofie Lefevre, the Navone Pendant was inspired by the glass art of the island of Murano in Italy and is available in three sizes. This pendant boasts a minimalistic but powerful round shade diffuser, with brass detailing which adds a contemporary touch to an otherwise Danish design. The Navone pendant light will quickly win a place in your heart. The shape of the suspension acts as an extension of the shape of the glass and creates a harmonious play of light.

The shade allows a soft but sufficient amount of light into the room, providing an ambient setting in whichever space you decide to display it in. The Navone is a beautiful lighting solution with a unique shape and elegant details that are guaranteed to make a statement no matter what your interior style.

Navone Pendant by Design For The People looks exceptionally striking when suspended above a dining table, coffee table or in your kitchen. It can be hung individually or grouped together to form a cluster of light that is sure to become a conversation starter.
