Marset Pleat Box 24 Pendant Light

We currently have limited stock of one of these items in our Clearance section.

The Pleat Box 24 Pendant is the second size in the Pleat Box collection, harbouring the same combination of innovative design and modern ceramics with a wider shade than the 13. Pleat Box 24 is a minimalistic and stylish pendant light which is available in multiple colourways, the organic form resembles fabric, appearing to crease and hang over the shade. Designed by Xavier Manosa and Marshalla Design Studio this pendant was created in 2011 for Spanish lighting manufacturers Marset, Pleat Box 24 was made from a combination of digitally designed creases in a piece of cloth and an organic silhouette of which is applied to a ceramic base.

Marset also offers a choice between two interior finishes inside the ceramic shade of the Pleat Box 24, both personalising the light output and resulting in two varying atmospheres. The white provides you with a bright light that is enhanced by the white shine, whereas the gold interior coats your space in a warm illumination.

Marset Pleat Box 24 Pendants are a beautiful example of ceramics used creatively. The range of colours are perfect for both homes and commercial spaces, suitable for your kitchen, dining room and social areas where you are prone to hosting guests.
