New Works Margin Table Lamp

The Margin Table Lamp by New Works is the most compact in the collection, but still offering the same high-quality ambient lighting. Designed by John Astbury, Margin is a modern interpretation of a classic lampshade. He has explored the concept of a tiered shade, which results in a softly diffused and warm illumination and provides an inviting atmosphere. The softness of the textile shade is contrasted with the sharp graphic silhouette, creating a unique character.

The New Works Margin Table Lamp is perfect for areas that require a relaxing feel, such as living rooms, bedrooms and spaces in the hospitality sector such as restaurants, bars and hotels. Display this table lamp individually, in small clusters or even pair it with other lighting solutions in the Margin collection for a seamless design.
