Petite Friture Vertigo Limited Edition Pendant

Petite Friture Vertigo Limited Edition Pendant was designed by Constance Guisset in 2010. The limited edition neon yellow celebrates the permanent icon which is the Vertigo Pendant. Guisset often wears this colour as an accent in her outfits. The generous bold colour choice adds a maximalist look to any decor. The pendant is respected in the visual of the lamp but also by the thread it weaves with the spaces it resigns. The play of shadows and light ribbons on the walls reinforces the graphic dimension of Vertigo. This aesthetic echoes Petite Friture's markers: graphics, geometry, detail and finish.

The Neon Yellow Vertigo pendant is available in three sizes: small, medium and large and is made up of a wireframe and light-weight ribbons.
