1 x Grey available.

The Grain pendant light is made of an innovative mixture of bamboo grain and plastic. The shade is made under high pressure casting and then manually assembled. A simple and soft design that generously emits a warm downlight. Jens Fager, a graduate from Konstfack University in Stockholm, is making an impact with his work characterised by poetry, simplicity and honesty. He wanted to create a versatile light that has warm and friendly appearance while gracefully spreading light underneath.

The pendant is equipped with an LED G9 light bulb that can last up to 10.000 hours. While saving energy the LED with reflect a warm glow and natural light into the room. This pendant features a white ceiling rose.
