Tab LED Floor Lamp by Flos

With a strikingly modern silhouette, the Tab floor lamp, by designers Edward Barber and Jay Osgerby, is an LED light providing adjustable illumination. Minimally styled, the Tab floor light has a distinctive folded shade which evenly distributes light emission and has a movable neck to allow for angled illumination. The lamp's rotatable head allows you to adjust the light by $\pm 90^\circ$ on the horizontal axis.

Providing direct light, this floor lamp combines clean lines, modern design and high functionality and comes in a choice of colours. The Tab collection also includes a table lamp.
