Axolight Bul-Bo LED Table Lamp

Axolight Bul-Bo LED Table Lamp was designed by Fabrizio Pellegrino and Lodovico Gabetti in 2019 and re-edition in 2021. The design pair created a maieutic laboratory to reconstruct the thoughts of Studio Gabetti and Isola, linked to the original design idea of the Bul-Bo lamp. Among the foundations of this path, are the direct stories of the architects Aimaro Isola and Guido Drocco (co-authors of Bul-Bo in 1971), the notes and original drawings of the studio, the memories of Gabetti and Pellegrino. It's this path which led Axolight to re-edition the first Bul-Bo and bring with it a second generation of ideas, deeply linked, in all respects, to the original idea of Bul-Bo.

Bul-Bo LED Table Lamp has been cleverly constructed to be displayed in both a residential and a commercial environment. The stem of the structure is made from aluminium which is secured to a black fabric base for stability. The elaborate and contemporary design of this table lamp is a testament to the remarkable craftsmanship of all designs. Bul-Bo Collection also includes a floor and wall lamp.
