Aromas Del Campo Aider Table Lamp

Designed by Arnold Salido, the Aromas Del Campo Aider Table Lamp is the perfect workspace companion. With an angled stem that allows the light source to protrude over your table top, and a soft diffuser that ensures glare-free illumination, the Aider can adapt to almost any interior. The silhouette features a metal stem, available in either satin nickel or matt brass, a sleek black shade and an impressive marble base that adds a creative touch. Rattan detailing is also included to add a touch of warmth to this table lamp.

Aider can be utilised in living rooms, dining spaces and offices. Acting as a subtle task lamp, the Aromas Del Campo Aider Table Lamp adds a stylish and sophisticated touch to your space. Thanks to a switch on the cable this light can be easily dimmed allowing it to go from a functional task lighting to a softer more ambient lamp.
