Aromas Del Campo Aider Floor Lamp

Designed by Arnold Salido, the Aromas Del Campo Aider Floor Lamp is a stylish modern lighting solution, consisting of an angled metal stem and black gloss shade - combined with rattan detailing to add a touch of warmth. The shade projects an even downlight that can be easily dimmed via a switch on the cable, allowing you to create an ambience that is perfect for you. This floor lamp features a unique marble base that not only keeps the light weighted but also adds a decorative feature to the design.

The Aromas Del Campo Aider Floor Lamp is a beautiful way to illuminate contemporary spaces on both a residential and commercial level, it is ideal for living rooms, entrance halls, dining rooms and even bedrooms. Similarly, it is a sophisticated way to brighten up restaurants, bars, hotels and cafes.
