PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Luciano Vistosi

Onfale by Artemide

Designed by Luciano Vistosi in the late 1970s, the Onfale is a true example of glass craftsmanship. A table lamp in three sizes, made of opaline blown glass. With a dome-shaped diffuser and cylindrical body, the Onfale lamps resemble mushrooms, only made of Murano glass. Vistosi became known for his experimental designs that challenged any traditional boundaries.

The table lamp is not dimmable and has an in-line on/off switch located on the cable. The Onfale Piccolo takes one lamp, and the other two Onfale lamps accommodate two. The lamps emit a diffused and warm light creating a beautiful atmosphere.
