Lee Broom Alchemist Mythos Duo Pendant

Inspired by ancient alchemy, the Mythos Duo Pendant from Lee Broom's Alchemist collection is a masterful display of craftsmanship and symbolism. Featuring two sculptural brass links that elegantly hold illuminated glass orbs, the pendant creates a striking visual. The concealed connections add to the pendant's mysterious charm, as it appears to defy gravity, illuminating the space without visible means of power. The use of hand-stitched leather to suspend the brass links adds a tactile element to the design.

Whether hung individually or in clusters, Mythos Duo brings a sense of intrigue and artistic elegance to any interior. Inspired by mythology and alchemical symbolism, this pendant references the tale of Prometheus and The Golden Chain of Homer, linking the physical with the metaphysical.

Available in three strap lengths (non-adjustable) of 100cm, 200cm and 300cm.
