Michael Anastassiades Ball Light Pendant Rod

The Michael Anastassiades Ball Light Pendant Rod is a versatile pendant that adds a touch of modern elegance to any space. Available in various lengths, this light features a single opaline glass sphere suspended by a customisable rod. Crafted in polished brass, nickel, or copper, it embodies Michael Anastassiades' minimalist aesthetic and commitment to material quality.

Ideal for use in clusters or as standalone pieces, the pendant provides a warm, diffused light that enhances dining areas, kitchens, or living spaces. The unlacquered finish matures over time, creating a patina that adds character and charm to the fixture.
