Spillray Wall Light by Axolight

The Spillray wall light was designed by Manuel Vivian and is part of the stunning Axolight Spillray collection. The wall light is made from a lovely glass lampshade and a sleek chrome structure. The light has a classic silhouette, resembling the historic torch wall lamps commonly seen in castles but is made with modern materials and ideals to look contemporary.

The Spillray wall lamp emits a subtle and illuminating glow that reflects out of the glass shade.
