Spillray Suspension by Axolight

The stunning single Spillray suspension light was designed by Manuel Vivian, who specialises in blown glass to make beautiful and graceful creations. This suspension is both artisanal and refined, a simple glass shade that subtly reveals the light source to create a refined and gentle glow.

The Spillray pendant is available in 3 different sizes that have their own unique shape, being a mixture of square and rectangular silhouettes. You can also choose between 4 finishes, giving you variety and versatility to find the perfect match for your space. This pendant light works best as an atmospheric light that can be used to create a cosy corner or to illuminate the room. Use alone or buy multiple in different sizes and colours to create a magnificent cluster feature. Also see the rest of the Axolight Spillray collection to find more versions of this suspension light.

This light is available in an LED version. Please contact us for more details.
