Grossman Cobra Floor Lamp by Gubi

The Cobra Floor Lamp is a part of the classic Cobra collection, designed by Greta M. Grossman in the 1950s. The light takes its name from the shape of the lampshade which resembles the hood of a cobra.

The arm of the floor lamp is flexible and the shade can be rotated, meaning that you can adjust the lamp to suit your needs, whether you want it as an atmospheric lounge light or as a reading light. The flat top and curved edges make this lamp truly unique and its design will be an eye-catching feature of the room.
