PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Héctor Serrano

Arturo Alvarez V Pendant Light

Designed by Héctor Serrano for Arturo Alvarez, the V pendant light is a futuristic design of geometric form. The V is a spatial pendant handmade from polycarbonate with a unique caged silhouette containing a glass diffuser, almost giving an otherworldly impression.

The diffused illumination which radiates from the V pendant contrasts to its striking innovative design and injection technology, making it both strong and lightweight. Combining modern allure with durable construction the V pendant will captivate your dining room, kitchen, or bedroom with a unique personality.

Available in two sizes and colours, the cutting edge V pendant is sure to make a lasting impression.
