Tolomeo LED Wall Light by Artemide

A fantastic and flexible designer wall light, the Tolomeo LED wall light is part of the well known Artemide Tolomeo collection. Baring the signature of award winning Michelle de Lucchi and Giancarlo Fassina, the Tolomeo LED wall lamp takes a classic silhouette and reinvents it in a modern and contemporary way. The arms and shade are completely flexible, with a spring mechanism being used in the body so the wall light is easy to move.

This wall lamp is perfect to use as a task or reading light whether in the office or a lounge. The light is nicely diffused so the lamp can also act as ambient lighting in your space to create a warm atmosphere. Wonderful for a wide variety of spaces in both home and commercial interiors, this wall light will not disappoint and will be a chic and elegant touch to the room. Available in three sizes, standard, mini and micro, to find the right fit for you.
