PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

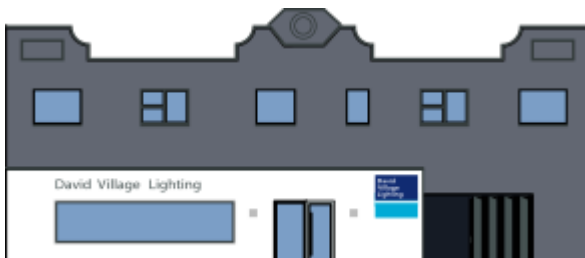

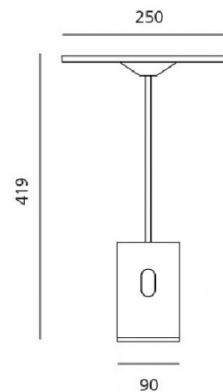

Designer: Scott Wilson

Sisifo by Artemide

Sisifo won the iF Design Award in 2015 and the design belongs to American entrepreneur, Scott Wilson. The lamp is a hybrid, with a fresnel-like diffuser fully rotatable and adjustable. With a high efficiency integrated LED source, Sisifo ensures for an evenly distributed and without shadows, light. The stem of the light has a joint-like articulation with the base, allowing for an effortless 360 rotation. The diffuser can also rotate with a ball joint articulation to the stem. You can adjust light direction easily and to suit any occasion and create your own atmosphere. A high performance and accent piece, the table lamp has a minimal design producing high light quality. An integrated touch dimmer on the body allows you to easily control and adjust light intensity.
