Artemide Nur Mini LED

Classic, yet modern the characteristic dome-shaped Nur lights have become an iconic Artemide product. The Nur collection was designed by the very founder of the Artemide Group, Ernesto Gismondi. Nur ceiling light is a minimalist design with a decorative essence that adds personality to any space, either commercial or residential. The Nur lights emit a soft and diffused light complementing any environment.

The Nur Mini LED ceiling light is available in four colour options, a matt aluminium grey or anthracite grey or if you prefer a glossy finish, you can select from a black or white colour. The Nur lights also include a LED suspension light or, if you prefer, the lights are also available with a retrofit light source.
