ModoLuce Icaro Ball Suspension

The ModoLuce Icaro Ball Suspension is a playful yet industrial-inspired pendant light, featuring a spherical design crafted from black matte steel wires with a central fabric diffuser. This striking piece draws attention with its bold, geometric silhouette and perfectly balances strength with elegance. Its open design allows light to shine through beautifully, casting dynamic shadows and adding depth to any space.

Available in a range of colour options, the Icaro Ball Suspension is versatile enough to complement a range of interior settings, from modern dining rooms to loft-inspired living spaces. Additionally, an outdoor version with an IP65 rating is available upon request, making it suitable for illuminating exterior spaces such as patios or terraces while maintaining its dramatic appeal.
