PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: George Carwardine

Anglepoise Original 1227 Giant Floor Lamp

Commissioned by the Roald Dahl Museum and Story Centre, the Anglepoise Original 1227 Giant Collection uses the design of Carwardine's iconic desk lamp, producing a floor lamp that is three times the size of the original. Taking inspiration from Dahl's fantasy-driven writings, the Original 1227 Giant floor lamp is playful and wondrous, making a bold statement in any room.

Suitable for both home and work settings, the 1227 Giant floor lamp has all the benefits of the classic Anglepoise design, being able to be positioned for a directional light with optimum flexibility. Perfectly balanced, it even has wheels to make it easier to move around, so you can find the right spot to showcase this amazing floor lamp. Available in the 6 colours as shown above, the Giant floor lamp is also available in a range of custom colours and finishes.

Please contact us for further enquiries to make a truly personalised Anglepoise floor lamp.
