La Petite Wall by Artemide

As part of the La Petite collection, designed by Andrea Quaglio and Emanuela Simonelli for Artemide, the wall light bares the same La Petite characteristics. A reinterpretation of the classic lampshade, made from light-weight plastic material. The light benefits from two diffusers emitting both a direct and indirect soft light. The La Petite lights have no symmetry, but order is always present. A simple joint connects the lampshade to the aluminium stem and just like that form an elegant, minimal design. The lampshade in fact acts as a counter balance to the asymmetrical, tilted stem.

The La Petite collection also include a floor lamp and table lamp, and all lights are available in a black or white finish.
