Tolomeo Outdoor LED Floor Lamp by Artemide

Expanding into outdoor lighting, the Tolomeo Outdoor LED floor lamp has the light source enclosed in a plastic unit, resembling the old lampposts when oil was used for lighting. The shade encloses the diffuser and is made with a Thuaia fabric by Paola Lenti, a washable and durable material perfect for outdoor settings.

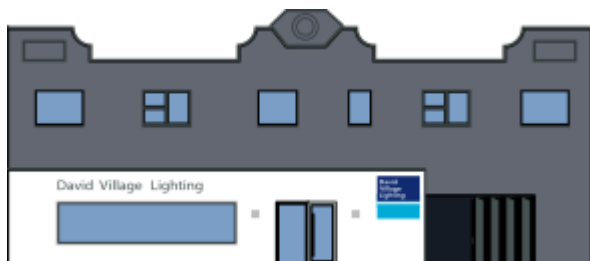

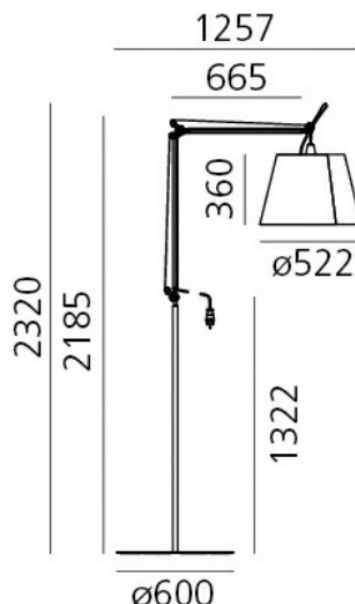

Even though the light comes with a shade, in either white, black or dove grey, the light was originally designed to be used with just the exposed inner diffuser as well, to create a traditional yet updated look. The Tolomeo Outdoor LED floor light is also completely adjustable, with flexible arms so you can direct the light where you need. Use in gardens, patio areas and canopies to bring a bright light to the dark.
