PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Zerodieci Pendant Light by Prandina

The Zerodieci pendant is a stylish yet simplistic light that is effective and versatile. The lampshade is made from blown glass, formed into a spherical shape to produce a welcoming and warming pendant. The smooth lines and the top-quality glass of the shade make this light beautiful and delicate.

The Zerodieci pendant light is very adaptable and can be used in a wide variety of settings both at home or in commercial spaces. The shade diffuses the light so emits a warm, ambient glow that will fill the room. Perfect for bedrooms, lounges, dining room and more, you have the choice between 2 sizes to find the right size for your room. You can buy several to put in rows, have one for a feature light or mix sizes to create lovely clusters.

This pendant light is also available in an integrated LED version. Please click here to find out more.
