Santachiara Pendant Light by Prandina

The Santachiara pendant is part of the Prandina Santachiara collection, a range dedicated to using exquisite materials to produce simply elegant designs. This pendant is made from blown opal glass, producing a lampshade that diffuses the light to create a warm glow. Available in 3 sizes, S1, S3 and S5, each pendant has a cylindrical shape with smooth lines. The design makes the Santachiara pendant light timeless and stylish, suitable for many spaces.

This pendant light has many capabilities and can be used in lounges, kitchens, receptions, dining and rooms and hallways. You can buy one for a singular light feature or you can buy several to use in rows or clusters. To make a real impact mix and match the various sizes to create an extravagant cluster.

This light is also available to buy online with an integrated LED light source. Please click here to find out more.
