PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Héctor Serrano

a-emotional light Ballet Relevé

The a-emotional light Ballet Relevé Pendant was created by Spanish designer Héctor Serrano. The structure of each pendant is formed by the folding and overlapping of a stainless-steel mesh, allowing the material to express itself freely. Héctor aimed to convey movement through The Relevé, which is achieved through the organic shape of the pendant. Its asymmetrical form means that the shape is always different to the observer, depending on where they are standing. When illuminated, the pendant projects a play of light and shadows against the surrounding walls, enhancing this feeling of movement further.

The a-emotional light Ballet Relevé Pendant is part of The Ballet Collection which features Plié, Elancé, and Relevé, as well as a chandelier that combines all three pendants. They can be hung individually or as multiples with a combination of pendants from the collection. This gives flexibility when choosing the pendant or formation of pendants to fill a space. The Relevé adds elegance to any space, capturing a state of dance. The warm, diffused glow that it emits is perfect for adding ambient lighting to a bedroom or living room.
