PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Manuel Vivian

Virtus by Axolight

With a discreet silhouette, the Virtus has become one of Axolight's favourites. A design by Manuel Vivian who truly embraces his Italian origins. The suspension has a slim, tubular body measuring 70 cm long. The lower end of the tube is where the integrated LED source is housed, emitting a warm light. Virtus is available in 5 colours options: an all white body, anthracite grey and nickel or gold end, rust brown and nickel or gold end. The suspension also has a medium beam, which is not adjustable.

The Virtus suspension is also available as a recessed version and you can also choose a cool white (4000K) colour temperature. Please contact us for more information and pricing.
