Resident Hex 500 Pendant

The Hex 500 Pendant is part of the Geometric Family by Resident, which showcases the beauty of mathematical precision in functional feature lighting for residential and commercial settings. The minimalistic pendant was designed in-house at the resident studio. It hangs from barely visible wires and features a top-quality LED light that casts a diffused glow through recessed frosted acrylic.

The Hex 500 Pendant is versatile and can be used alone, in groups, or in combination with other geometric lighting fixtures. Hex 500 comes in a matt black colourway. Each pendant is handmade in Auckland, New Zealand.
