Mutatio Table Lamp by Le Klint

Designed in 2013 by Christian Troels, the Mutuatio table lamp is a light that has minimalist design at its forefront, using clean, simple lines to produce a sleek and modern table light. The table lamp has a cylindrical shape with a shade that can open and close, allowing you to angle and direct the light where you want.

The Mutatio table light is painted in contrasting black and white colours, resulting in a dynamic and striking light that illuminates light to the maximum. A handy and contemporary looking lamp, this table light will work best on bedside tables, desks and side tables to create ambience and a directed light for whatever task you are doing. Suitable for home and professional spaces, you can also pair the Le Klint Mutatio table lamp with the Mutatio wall lamp to have a consistent light scheme throughout your room.
