Yuh LED Floor Lamp by Louis Poulsen

The name of this Louis Poulsen lamp comes from the phonetic sound you make when pronouncing "you"; its a lamp entirely made to be about you.

The designers GramFratesi, a duo of Architects, were influenced by Arne Jacobsen and based their designs on Poul Henningsen's work. The Yuh lamp is inspired by the AJ collection, the geometry, lines and angles of it make it a functional modern sculptural.

A personal floor lamp which is functional, taking up minimum space. The designers worked hard to design a light that can be moved in every way along its axis, rotate, incline or move up&down. The diffuser emits a direct downlight, glare-free, but a slim opening at the top allows for some light to escape and provide a warm ambience around it.

The Yuh floor lamp is available in an all black or all white colour, as well as in a black/brass or white/brass with a matching marble base.

The switch and dimmer is located at the top of the stem and functions also as a timer to automatically turn off the light at 0hrs/4hrs/8hrs.
