Bover Marietta LED Outdoor Pendant Light

The Marietta LED outdoor pendant is a contemporary, enveloping and decorative light designed by Joana Bover. The lampshade is made from white polyethylene, making it suitable for the outdoors and has a textured and wave-like design that is chic and stylish. The warm glow is nicely diffused and produces a downward directed light that is perfect for putting over tables in patios and terraces.

Perfect for many settings, the Marietta LED outdoor pendant light can be used in home gardens or commercial exteriors to provide needed light under the dark sky. The classic design and sleek, clean lines make this pendant universal and will stand the test of time. The pendant light also comes with an integrated LED light source making it long-lasting and environmentally friendly and is dimmable to create the atmosphere you want.
