PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Zaha Hadid

Slamp Aria Transparent LED Suspension

Designed by Zaha Hadid, the Aria Transparent LED Suspension is fluid and dynamic. This beautiful and lavish lighting design consists of 50 layers of patented Cristalflex panels, suspended from a round canopy by three cables. These panels are arranged around an LED light source and each is completely unique and different from the next. The dramatic design emits modern luxury and makes a perfect statement piece in contemporary environments, both residential and commercial, creating a lavish ambience. This decorative light is designed to offer diffused light as well as a bold design to any interior space.

The Aria Transparent Suspension is a dramatic modern day chandelier that is perfect for use in hallways, bedrooms, dining areas and hotel lobbies. Hadid's design is also available in two other finishes, making it easy to fit with a multitude of décor options.
