The striking LED Tube Chandelier by Michael Anastassiades demonstrates the designer’s ability to create a statement lighting piece from simple elements, using a sculptural form and harmonious materials.

Crafted from brass with a satin finish, Michael Anastassiades’ Tube Chandelier balances three long lines of LED diffuser, which emanate bright illuminations of light from all sides. Anastassiades’ philosophy is to produce exceptionally designed objects of permanent value. All of his designs are handcrafted: the glass work is free-blown and the metal finishes are bespoke, ensuring lasting pieces of enduring craftsmanship.

The Tube Chandelier’s starkly contemporary, sculptural silhouette would make a unique centrepiece, wherever you hang it in your space.
