PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Patrick Norguet

Artemide Giò Light Suspension

The motto behind the Gio's design was 'make more with less', and that was the main focus of designer, Patrick Norguet. The Gio Light is a timeless and non obtrusive object, that will light up any room. You can install the pendant in any space, which suits both residential and public environments. A long cord means that the height is adjustable and can be hang in both high ceiling spaces as well as smaller interiors. Gio Lights are available in a choice of two colour options: black or white and the pendants can be installed in a cluster to create your own unique installation.

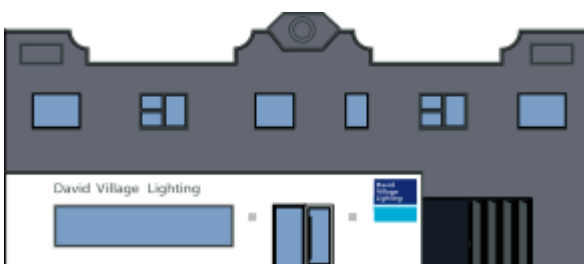

The Gio Light Collection also includes the Gio Light Decentrata with a decentralised installation, which permits for adjusting the pendant at different heights. Finally, the Gio Light Cluster comes with three pendants, in the same colour options, as well as the decentralised feature. A Gio Light brings colour and light into your home or business.
