PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Ferm Living Arum Table Lamp

The Arum table lamp takes its name and shape from the Arum plant family. The shade which resembles the main leaf of the plants is counterbalanced by a marble/travertine base. A contrast between an organic shape and industrial material, the Arum table light is stylish and chic, fitting seamlessly into any setting. The lamp emits a soft, evenly distributed evenly light and the direction of the shade can be adjusted to your liking and mood.

This table lamp is available in both a black or cashmere colours and is part of the wider Ferm Living Arum collection. Match with other lights from the collection to create a consistent light scheme throughout your space.
