Ferm Living Kelim Cushions - packs of 2

Ferm Living Kelim Cushion Collection, features a selection of modern patterns both monochrome and colourful to redefine traditional kelim craftsmanship. Made by using one of the oldest weaving techniques, a 'Punja' loom, everything is made by hand including the wool dyeing.

The production of the collection is all manual which gives each cushion an individual variation, adding a unique touch. The technique and wool used are part of the characteristic of the traditional kilim style, a coarse weave but a cosy addition to any space.
