PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Ferm Living Braided Bottle Pendant Light

The Bottle pendant is made of hand-braided rattan, a type of climbing reed found in the Old world. The Braided collection is made by hand and therefore each pendant is unique and two are never the same.

You can choose to hang a single or a couple of Bottle pendants above your table or kitchen counter or at the corner of any room. The strips of reed allow for slithers of light to escape in every direction, while the opening at the base of the shade emits a direct downlight.

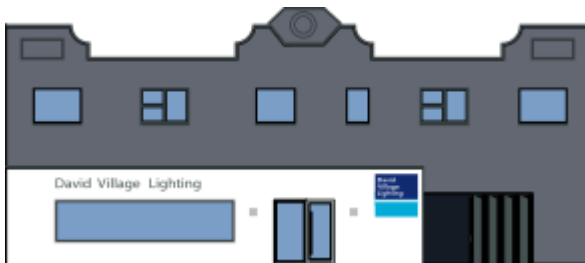

The Bottle pendant lamp comes with a 2m cable but is also available to purchase without a suspension kit or with a 4m cable kit. Please contact us for prices and more information.
