PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Edward van Vliet

Kaipo TOO by Moooi

The Kaipo TOO is a successor to the original Kaipo design, back from 2001. The table lamp still shows off the classic shade of the lamp's base. The new design includes a choice of different materials, made entirely of blown glass, radiating as a single unity, the base merging into the shade. The classic Kaipo was instead made of glass and steel, as statement of contrast. Designed by Edward van Vliet, the Kaipo TOO lamp looks stunning in any room and any setting. Get your for the office, desk, living room and add a vintage but classic elegance into the space. The lamp is available in two colour options, pewter or sepia.
