Kelly Sphere Pendant Light by Lodes

A bestseller from Lodes, the Kelly Sphere pendant light is part of the Lodes Kelly collection, a range that is characterised by its laser cut metal lampshade. Designed by Andrea Tosetto, the Kelly Sphere pendant plays with light in a lively manner, as shadow and light dance around each other thanks to the holes cut into the lower half of the sphere. The pendant still produces a strong and warm glow, however, and is glare-free due to the inside glass diffuser.

The Sphere pendant is suitable for both domestic and commercial settings and is best suited for lounges, dining areas and kitchens. The pendant light is available in 2 chic colours and the 3 different sizes means you can buy multiple to cluster together or put in row to have a magnificent light feature that seamlessly fits into your space. Stylish and contemporary, this pendant is a must have and has become a modern icon.

The Kelly Sphere pendant is also available in a large size with an 80cm diameter. Please contact us to order or for more details.
