Kaiser Idell 6722 Pendant Light by Fritz Hansen

The Kaiser Idell 6722 pendant light is the smaller version of the Kaiser Idell 6631 pendant light, a new release from Fritz Hansen. This more compact version is available in 4 modern colours, which are vibrant and subtle so you can find the right finish for your space. First designed in 1931 by Christian Dell the Fritz Hansen Kaiser Idell collection is as relevant and stunning today as it was when it first premiered. This pendant light takes its design from this collection, creating a more compact version of the iconic Kaiser Idell lampshade which is rounded and curved.

Emitting a downward directed light, the Kaiser Idell 6722 pendant is perfect for hanging over tables and surfaces to create a warming spotlight. You can either create a series or row of lights or you can mix and match colours to create a varied cluster which produces a beautiful and big illumination. Elegant and timeless, this pendant is the perfect choice for kitchens, dining rooms, lounges and many more settings in homes and commercial spaces.
