PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Secto Victo Small 4251 Pendant Light

The Secto Victo Small 4251 pendant light was designed to suit smaller spaces which cannot accommodate the larger Victo 4250 pendant. At just 39cm high, the Victo Small 4251 is ideal used singularly as a central light source or in multiples over a breakfast bar or dining table. Providing a cosy atmosphere thanks to the warmth of the wood, the Victo Small 4251 suspension is still handmade in Finland with premium Finish birch.

Available with a white or black lamination, in its natural birch state or with a walnut veneer, the Secto Victo Small 4251 pendant light is part of a collection wall lights, floor lights and table lamps - browse the rest of Secto's designs here.
